STATUS LETTER

Dear Sir:

The above application was filed as an International Application with the designated countries including U.S., and entered into the National Phase in U.S. on April 21, 1995.

Although three years have passed since the above entry, I have not received any communications from the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

Therefore, please let me know the current status of this application.

I would greatly appreciate your early response to my status inquiry. Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Date: September 24, 1998
